

Rapport de Stress

John has been feeling overwhelmed at work. He struggles to sleep at night and constantly worries about deadlines. Every day, he feels tense and fatigued, showing classic signs of stress. His friends have noticed his mood swings and irritability. It's important for him to find coping strategies and seek support to manage stress effectively.